

Requirements for passing Clinical Pharmacology and Pharmacotherapy (1) and for taking the Final Exam in winter term 2021/2022

Terms of DISTANCE LEARNING due to ongoing COVID-19 pandemic

1. Lectures:

- All lectures will be presented online via MS Teams according to the official schedule
- Attendance at all lectures is mandatory, presence will be verified by automatic electronic monitoring!
- Handout materials from lectures will be gradually posted on the official E-Learning site of this course.

2. Seminars:

- All seminars will be presented via MS Teams according to the official schedule.
- Students are required to attend the seminar for which they were signed up in their official schedule in AIS2.
- Attendance at all seminars is mandatory, 100% presence rate is required! Students' presence during each seminar will be verified by switched-ON video camera in MS Teams.
 - Substitution for each absence is writing an essay. Please contact the teacher of the missed seminar (by email) as soon as possible and ask for an assignment. The teacher will specify the essay requirements.
 - The completed essay must be delivered as soon as possible, but no later than December 12, 2021. Delayed requests/essays will be immediately rejected.
 - Please submit your completed substitute essays according to the teacher's instructions
- Handout materials from seminars will be gradually posted on the official E-Learning site of this course.

3. Seminar presentation/essay:

- Each student will be assigned to prepare a presentation or an essay for a pre-determined seminar.
- Students are required to request an assignment and all necessary instructions from the appointed teacher. Further details will be announced at the first seminar.
- Each student must personally present his/her seminar work to their colleagues at designated seminar via MS Teams.
- In the case of an absence on such seminar, students must contact the teacher of the relevant week as soon as possible and ask for further instructions. Students will be required to supply the presentation + substitution for an absence. All seminar works must be resolved no later than December 12, 2021. Delayed works will be immediately rejected.

4. Final exam:

- Student is eligible for the final exam only if all previous requirements have been met and the teachers were satisfied with seminar presentation.
- Final exams will be performed in the form of a test during examination period. Further details regarding exams will be posted in advance before the start of the examination period.
- Minimal score for successful passing the final exam is 60%.

Recommended Literature and Sources:

- Online databases:
 - LEXICOMP Online. Wolters Kluwer Clinical Drug Information, Inc. <online: <http://online.lexi.com/lco/action/home>>
- e-books and printed books:
 - Brown M.J., Sharma P., Mir F.A., Bennet P.N.: Clinical Pharmacology. 12th Edition. Elsevier. 2018 (available as e-book from Central Library)
 - Francis S-A, Smith F.J., Malkinson J., Constanti A., Taylor K. Integrated Pharmacy Case Studies. Pharmaceutical Press. 2015 (available as e-book from Central Library)
 - Gray A.H., Wright J., Bruce L., Oakley J. Clinical Pharmacy. Second Edition. Pharmaceutical Press. 2016 (available in Central Library for present studying)
 - Nathan A: Managing symptoms in the pharmacy. Second Edition. Pharmaceutical Press. 2012 (available as e-book from Central Library)
(e-book section from Central Library: <https://www.fpharm.uniba.sk/en/divisions/central-library/e-books/>)

Please report technical issues with E-Learning/MS Teams or study-related questions relevant to this course to Dr. Dóka by email: <doka@fpharm.uniba.sk> or via MS Teams.

Referee for seminars: Mgr. Gabriel Dóka, PhD.

Bratislava, September 13, 2021

prof. PharmDr. Ján Klimas, PhD., MPH gestor