5. Only candidates up to 80th placement will be admitted to Master Degree Study Programme Pharmacy in English language.

Organization of admission procedures

6. Applications of candidates are administered and evaluated continuously during the time in which the Faculty is accepting the applications for the study.
7. The prerequisite for being admitted to the Master Degree Study Programme Pharmacy shall be the knowledge of the English language and two written tests, in Chemistry and Biology (the maximum number of points for each test is 50 points). The maximum possible number of points achieved within the admission test procedure can be 100 points. On the date of the test, after publishing the results, each candidate has a possibility of inspecting his/her test and consulting the reason for non-granting the points with the members of the Admission Committee.
8. Authorized teachers have prepared, and the Dean has approved the "Set of Questions for Admission Examinations in Biology and Chemistry". This material is available to all candidates at the Faculty Library in Bratislava and upon request it is sent by post (the price of one set is 40 € + postal charges). After being approved by the Academic Senate of the Faculty of Pharmacy of CU, all information concerning the admission procedures are published at the official bulletin board of the Faculty of Pharmacy and on the Faculty website.

Rules for study admission

9. Applications of the candidates are evaluated exclusively after the submission of the complete application to the Faculty (including payment of the administrative fee and all necessary attachments). The date of submission is decided by the stamp of the Faculty Registry Office.
10. In case a non-complete application is submitted, the Faculty asks the candidate by e-mail to complete his/her application. Should the candidate fail to do this, his/her application will be considered invalid.

11. The decision concerning the admission of candidates to study is made by the Dean and the Admission Committee. The Admission Committee shall assess applications of the candidates sorted by the delivery date to the Faculty. After verification of the fulfilment of requirements for admission, the Admission Committee accepts the candidate to study until the quota has achieved the maximum possible number of students admitted in the academic year.
12. The transfer of a student from other higher-education institution shall have the same form of admission procedures as stated above pursuant to Sect. 58 of the Act on higher education institutions.
13. Tuition fee for the academic year 2023/2024 is 7500 € for 2 semesters with guarantee of no raise of tuition fee for the next 5 years of study of a student. The fee must be paid by single bank transfer to the bank account of the Faculty no later than August 31, 2023. On the registration date, the document certifying the tuition fee payment must be submitted to the Study Department of the Faculty of Pharmacy. If the student fails to provide a proof of payment of the tuition fee, he/she shall not be registered for the appropriate academic year.
14. When the decision concerning non-admission is reviewed, only the applications substantiated by the violation of the above rules of the admission procedure or by the violation of the applicable Act on higher education institutions shall be reviewed.
